

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

FIRST AMERICAN PROPERTY & CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

v.

BROAN-NUTONE LLC,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C20-0199JLR

ORDER GRANTING STIPULATED MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL DATE

Before the court is the parties' joint stipulated motion requesting a new trial date and extension of pretrial case deadlines. (Mot. (Dkt. # 25).) The parties previously requested an extension of pretrial case deadlines. (4/9/21 Mot. (Dkt. # 23).) The court denied that request but indicated that the court would consider moving the parties' trial date to the end of the court's trial calendar if they so requested. (4/12/21 Order (Dkt. # 24) (noting that court is currently scheduling trials in winter of 2022-23).) The parties now request a trial date at the end of the court's calendar. (Mot. at 1.) They submit that

1 there is good cause for delay because they intend to mediate and believe that “the
2 likelihood of a mediated settlement is increased if in the interim the parties can avoid
3 additional attorneys and expert fees.” (Id. at 2.)

4 The court GRANTS the parties’ stipulated motion to extend the trial date (Dkt.
5 # 25). The Clerk is authorized to issue a minute order setting a new trial date at the end
6 of the court’s trial calendar, along with new dates for all unexpired pretrial deadlines.

7 Dated this 26th day of April, 2021.
